

MCL.IN invites Partners

MCL.IN are primarily computing technology experts. We have been working on computing for the past 25 years and leverage our knowledge and experience gained over the years to provide an unique insight to computing intellectual property. MCL.IN is positioned uniquely to offer a full range of IP services related to computing technologies. Based in Mumbai, India, MCL.IN provides their clients with a full range of IP services at an unbelievably low cost. Most of our analysis reports cost under a couple of hundred dollars. Similar reports in the USA would be priced at least 5 times more at a thousand dollars or more.

MCL.IN invites partnerships with IP Legal Practitioners and attorneys, IP departments of companies and Computing Patent non-practicing entities (NPE). The partnership works both ways as described below :

For IP Legal Practitioners and Attorneys

While we could provide IP analysis, litigation support, patent landscaping and mapping, and prior-art service, we could refer our clients to you for any IP related legal matter – be it filing of patents or for any litigation services.

For IP departments of companies

Engage MCL as your IP department today and get access to top class IP portfolio management with significant cost reductions due to economies of scale and our unique business model. We could help you identify new sources of monetizing your assets and licensing your portfolio.

For Non-Practicing Entities

Our IP services backed by our 25 years of computing practice, provides you with an unique business proposition at a lowest cost possible. We could also help locate IP assets for you from inventors interested in monetizing their assets.
